I believe that the JAMRS database is an intrusion into family privacy and the Pentagon should not be compiling this information.

Following recent revelations that the Pentagon is compiling and using a mega-database of private information on 30 million 16 to 25-year-olds for military recruitment purposes, I respectfully call on Secretary of Defense Robert Gates to immediately enact the following measures:

1. Remove all minors from the JAMRS database.
2. Establish a National Do Not Call List for unwanted military recruitment, including:
 - a) clear opt out instructions prominently displayed on the Department of Defense website.
 - b) establishment of a toll-free opt out hotline.
3. Remove all personal data beyond name and address, such as height, weight, social security number, cell phone number, and ethnicity from the JAMRS database.
